

Careers in Public Power

ENVIRONMENTAL COORDINATOR

SKILLS

Science in Society

Analyzing and Interpreting Data

Communication

Observation

Problem Solving

Cause & Effect

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in Engineering, physical, or natural sciences

Knowledge of applicable laws and regulations is required

Knowledge of environmental and ecological techniques and processes (biology, chemistry, meteorology, and computers) and licensing procedures is desired

QUALIFICATIONS

May have to maintain Respirator Qualification or other certifications depending upon site requirements.

JOB DEMANDS

Detailed Work • 67-100%
Reading • 67-100%
Problem Solving • 67-100%
Oral & Written Communication • 67-100%
Independent Analysis • 67-100%

SALARY RANGE

$84,000-$125,000

TYPICAL DUTIES

- » Conduct extensive site inspections to promote environmental compliance and identify potential problems before they occur.
- » Serve as the focal point and interface with the Corporate Environmental Department and environmental regulatory agency personnel during site inspections.
- » Develop, implement and support environmental programs.
- » Provide technical expertise and recommendations to the business unit's site management and workforce to ensure that related decisions are made in accordance with environmental laws and regulations.
- » Act as the resident environmental consultant.

Powered by:
Nebraska Public Power District
Always there when you need us

ILLUMINATE
POWERING INNOVATION