

ENVIRONMENTAL SPECIALIST

SKILLS

Science in Society

Analyzing and Interpreting Data

Communication

Observation

Problem Solving

Cause & Effect

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in the biological, physical, environmental sciences, or engineering;

OR Associates Degree and experience;

OR High School Diploma/ GED and experience

JOB DEMANDS

- Reading • 67-100%
- Problem Solving • 67-100%
- Oral & Written Communication • 67-100%
- Detailed Work • 67-100%
- Math • 34-66%

SALARY RANGE

$74,000-$125,000

TYPICAL DUTIES

- » Design and conduct environmental programs, monitoring studies and audits. Research, analyze and conduct environmental and engineering evaluations as a basis for decisions to be made and provide appropriate course of action.
- » Interpret environmental rules and regulations to determine the applicability to NPPD activities and develop course of action. Prepare and interpret environmental reports, surveys and applications for state or federal licenses or permits.
- » Develop, write and modify policies and procedures. Continuously review NPPD environmental programs and processes, and suggest improvements.
- » Represent NPPD in interactions with the public and in discussions and meetings with Regulators.